Litigation Update

Please take note of the following information:

The Ontario Court of Appeal had postponed the hearing for Ontario's appeal of Justice Hennessy's Stage 1 ruling. This postponement was due to the untimely death of RHTLF co-counsel, Mr. Joseph Arvay. The Ontario Court of Appeal has now set new dates for the Stage 1 appeal hearing.

The stage one appeal hearing will now be held on the following dates:

(1) April 12, 2021 for technology testing;

(2) April 13, 2021 for opening statements; and

(3) the weeks of April 19 and 26, 2021 for seven days of argument.

The current plan is for the stage one hearing to proceed by Zoom. This may change if the COVID situation changes. We will keep you informed.

The dates for the Court of Appeal hearing for Ontario's Stage 2 appeal remain the same. The dates are for three days beginning June 1 – 3, 2021.

The current COVID 19 restrictions limit public gatherings; but we still want to make sure there are arrangements in place for viewing of the appeal proceedings.

Miigwetch,

Mike Restoule, Chair
